

A BENEFIT FOR MERCY CORPS' HURRICANE KATRINA RELIEF EFFORTS

SEE JOSS WHEDON'S "FIREFLY" ON THE BIG SCREEN

(Presented by PDX Browncoats)

- DATE:

Saturday, September 24, 2005

- TIME:

1:00 PM to 5:00 PM

- LOCATION:

Guild Theater, 829 SW 9th Avenue, Portland OR 97205

- WHAT:

Three episodes of Joss Whedon's "Firefly" will be shown at the Guild Theater, with proceeds going to Mercy Corps' hurricane relief efforts on the Gulf Coast.

- PRICE:

$7.00 per person, of which $6.00 goes to Mercy Corps' hurricane relief efforts (with $1.00 going to the venue).

There also will be an opportunity to offer additional donations to Mercy Corps above and beyond this ticket price.

- DETAILS:

Showing on the 14x23-foot screen at the Guild Theater will be three episodes of "Firefly" -- "Serenity" (the two-hour pilot) and two episodes to be determined by local "Firefly" fans via online poll by Friday, September 23.

The Guild Theater seats 375 people, so a sell-out would mean a total donation to Mercy Corps in excess of $2,000.

- NOTE ON PROCEEDS:

PDX Browncoats is attempting to cover the up-front costs of theater rental and rights to show "Firefly" so that these costs are not taken from the take at the door on the day of the event.
